"I have been working at my firm since April of 2010. I have worked in the past with many court reporters, but, I find that Kress Reporting is one of the best. Rafael is very reliable and on top of his game. No problems whatsoever. He is courteous, responsible, attentive, and more importantly very detailed and pays attention to what is going on. I recommend Kress and Rafael to anyone that would require a court reporter. I am sure wherever Rafael's endeavors are he will be No. 1 and he knows how to get the job done. Our firm is very happy with his performance."

"Rafael is a very talented entrepreneur. Alongside his industrious endeavors on the web, such as webhosting and design, he manages the office of a very busy court reporting agency for the owner Mr. Paul Kress. He was instrumental in creating the entire platform they use to coordinate the company's daily hectic schedules. There is not much he cannot do, taking care of all technical questions I have any time of day. If you need web design or anything else done on the internet, you should take a look at his website and services."

"Kress Court Reporting is a subcontractor in the greater Miami area for my company's high volume contact with the Securites and Exchange Commission. As office manager, Rafael has been a joy to work with. He is always organized, always on top of his busy schedule, and goes above and beyond to help my company keep our client happy. He does his absolute best to set his reporters' schedules to assign by-name requested court reporters, and assures that not only are the reporters on time to assignments, but transcripts are sent to our office in a prompt manner. In addition to his professionalism Rafael is very personable and has great communication skills. I highly recommend Rafael for his reliability, responsibility, and attentiveness to client needs."

"While I have yet to hire Rafael for a final work product for my company (in a holding pattern of my own doing), I have spoken with him a number of times over the telephone and by e-mail. He has conducted himself in all communications with the upmost professionalism. Rafael is extremely knowledgeable in his area and has a keen interest in making certain that his clients' desires are met. He is a great LISTENER!! That is rare in our society, rarer still in this industry. I would wholeheartedly recommend Mr. Anazco's business services without reservation!"
